

Originally trained as a psychotherapist, Jackie Woodside, Certified Professional Coach (CPC) and Energy Leadership master Practitioner (EL-MP), has been doing professional speaking, training, and coaching since 1995. Her extensive understanding of human development makes her work unique, deep, and broad in its scope.

She works with business owners, entrepreneurs and inspired individuals from all over the country to help them transform their business and their lives into their own unique and extract vision. Jackie has trained with and is certified by the institute for professional Excellence in coaching (IPEC). She is also a professional development Leadership Coach with Team Achieve Plus, a performance based corporate consulting firm.

She also has a Masters Degree in clinical Social Work from Boston College. Jackie recently was a contributor to a book called "Conscious Entrepreneurs," an anthology of spiritually minded business people committed to bringing spiritual values and principles into the arena of business. Since 2005, Jackie has served as president to the board of trustees at Unity on the River, a spiritual community in Amesbury, MA, where she teaches numerous classes and workshops and is a frequent guest speaker.

If you would like Jackie to speak to your organization call 508.630.0340, or email Jackie@JackieWoodside.com for more information.

Why hire Jackie?

Jackie Woodside inspired audiences from the business sector, community groups, and spiritual organizations on topics such as energy management, goal setting accountability, communication, and managing change.

Jackie delivers her messages with humor, deep insight, and engaging intelligence.

Jackie Woodside CPC, LICSW
Speaker. Trainer. Coach.
508.630.0340
Jackie@JackieWoodside.com
www.JackieWoodside.com

