Igniting the Flame of Infinite Possibility

Originally trained as a psychotherapist, Jackie Woodside is a Certified Professional Coach and has been doing professional speaking, training, and coaching since 1995. Her extensive understanding of human potential makes her work unique, deep, and broad in its scope. She works with business owners, entrepreneurs, and inspired individuals from all over the country to help them transform their businesses and their lives into their own unique and exact vision.

Jackie was certified as a coach by the Institute for Professional Empowerment Coaching. Jackie is also a member of the International Speaker Network and holds a Masters Degree in Clinical Social Work from Boston College.

From 2005-2011, Jackie served as President to the Board of Trustees at Unity on the River, a large, vibrant spiritual community in Amesbury, MA, where she teaches numerous classes and workshops and is a frequent guest lecturer.

Jackie was a contributor to a book called Conscious Entrepreneurs, an anthology of spiritually-minded business people committed to bringing spiritual values and principles into the area of business. This book brings together 47 conscious entrepreneurs, including Jackie, who openly share their wisdom, expertise, stories, lessons and insights.

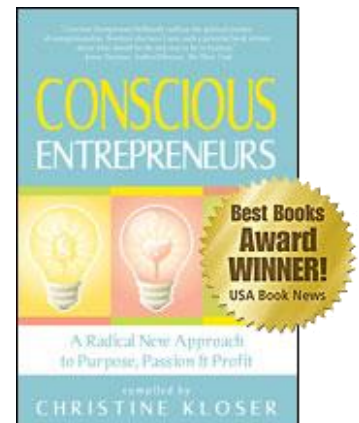

Jackie's chapter on "Busyness" helps people define a better relationship with time, bringing them into closer alignment with their vision, values, and mission. She provides four easy steps that allow people to rise to a higher level of consciousness and live in a way that is fulfilling, meaningful, and effective.

"Jackie is a natural teacher and a gifted speaker." Cheryl Richardson, NY Times Best-Selling Author, Speaker, and Master Certified Coach

"I enjoyed and received a great value from your talk today. You have immeasurable gifts as an inspirational speaker with poise, credibility, and lots of heart." Cynde D. Business Professional

"Jackie is a wonderful, motivating speaker who has the unique capability of blending directness, humor, and insightfulness into her talks. She uses these same skills as a class leader, inviting people to dig deep into whatever it is they need to explore while providing them with a warm, safe, and caring environment." Nancy L., Freelance Marketing Writer

"Jackie's talks are always delivered with genuine enthusiasm – it is always easy and rewarding to listen to Jackie. She demonstrates an innate ability to cover topics with depth, ease, and grace. Her speech is impeccable and her message always seems crisp, on-point, and meaningful!" Carolyn F., Marketing Manager
